

Question Paper

Instructions: 1. Read all questions carefully before answering 2. Write your answers clearly and legibly 3. Manage your time effectively 4. Show your work where applicable

Q1. Question 1: Who were some of the Native American allies that supported the French during the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q2. Question 2: What was the approximate population of European settlers in French North America at the start of the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q3. Question 3: What was the approximate population of French North American colonies compared to British North American colonies at the start of the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q4. Question 4: What was the population of European settlers in French North American colonies at the start of the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q5. Question 5: What was the approximate population of European settlers in the French North American colonies at the start of the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q6. Question 6: What was the approximate population of European settlers in the French North American colonies at the start of the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q7. Question 7: Who were the primary allies of France in the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q8. Question 8: What was the approximate population difference between French and British colonies at the start of the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Q9. Question 9: Question: What was the main reason why the French North American colonies relied heavily on Native American allies during the French and Indian War? A) To reduce costs B) Because of their small population C) To counterbalance the British military might D) Due to geographical barriers ? (5 points)

Q10. Question 10: Who did the French North American colonies rely on largely for support during the French and Indian War? (5 points)

Answer Key

A1. The Algonquian-speaking tribes, Iroquois Confederacy, and Huron.

A2. 60,000

A3. 60,000 (to the French) vs. 2 million (to the British).

A4. 60,000

A5. 60,000

A6. 60,000

A7. Native American tribes.

A8. 2 million (French) to 60,000 (British).

A9. C) To counterbalance the British military might

A10. Native American allies.